November 14, 2003 – Mandaree Enterprises Corp., a company owned by the Three Affiliated Tribes, has been awarded a $14 million federal contract .

The three-year contract is with the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development, Sen. Byron Dorgan, D-N.D., said Thursday. The company will create, collect and analyze surveys of people in public and assisted-pay housing around the country, Dorgan said.

Mandaree Enterprises has more than 50 workers and has increased its annual sales to $4.5 million over the past 11 years, Dorgan said.
